Today's proposal builds on the Commission's work to tackle corporate tax avoidance in Europe, estimated to cost EU countries EUR 50-70 billion a year in lost tax revenues. Supplementing other proposals to introduce sharing of information between tax authorities, it would require multinationals operating in the EU with global revenues exceeding EUR 750 million a year to publish key information ...

Key Findings. A central goal of corporate tax reform is to fix the U.S.'s system for taxing the foreign profits of domestic businesses. Many lawmakers have sought to reform the corporate tax by moving to a territorial tax system, which would exempt foreign profits of U.S. multinational businesses from domestic taxation.
