Evolution no more disproves the existence of a Creator/designer of this universe than the discovery of gravity did for Newton and Einstein. If your talking about a deistic God then one as the insurmountable problem of the finitude of the past as well as the origin and existence of the laws of science themselves, which are the foundation of evolution.

No doubt more have been found since late 1996. This raises the interesting possibility that an experimentally-minded person could have an 'HIV' test, then get vaccinated against a collection of likely diseases, and have a retest, to see if it turns out positive; then return some time later, presumably to get a negative result again.
